

17th February 2017

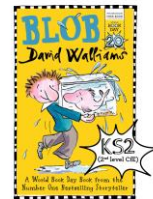

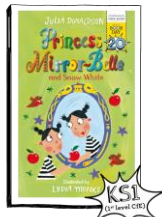

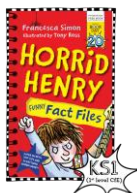

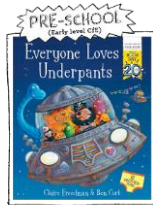

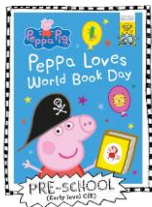

World Book Day

'Reading is like flying – it can carry you to different worlds.' Julia Donaldson

World book day is nearly here. This is the biggest celebration of books and reading in the world.

Participating bookshops will be displaying World Book Day posters and notices in their windows.

These are the £1 books available this year.

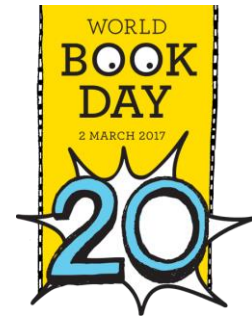

On Monday 27th February we will send home a £1 voucher to swap for a FREE World Book Day book or to get £1 off any book at a participating bookshop.

We will be holding several exciting events to promote a love of reading, these include book and author quizzes, workshops, there will be a daily competition on the school website – children enter a prize draw by finding out the answer and placing it in a box on the classroom door in the mornings.

Year 1 and 2 – Read before you Sleep

This event will be held on Wednesday 1st March at 4.00pm in the school hall. Bring your child and join the teacher for a story session in the hall. Children can come dressed in their pyjamas and snuggle down for a story. Refreshments will be provided.

Make sure you visit your local library over half term so you can get ready for the author and book quizzes.

17th February 2017

Our school library will be open as normal after school on Monday 27th February. Come along and see all the new books you can borrow to read at home.

Dress Up Day for all year groups

On Thursday 2nd March we would like children to take part in a fancy dress competition. We would like children to come dressed as their favourite character from a book. There will be a prize for each class for the most inventive ideas!

Have a look at the World Book Day website for some dressing up ideas.

<http://www.worldbookday.com/dressing-up/>

Children can bring in their favourite books from home to share.

Happy Reading!

