

History – Year 2

Spring 1 – The Cadbury Brothers and Joseph Chamberlain

In key stage 1 I learnt:

To use photographs, pictures, portraits, plaques and images of paintings to find out about the past.

There are different points of view about important people in the past.

To place important people and events from the past on a timeline.

To say why people in the past did what they did.

Old, new, past, present, Victorian, timeline, monarchy, Queen Victoria, same, different, rich, poor.

Portrait, statue, plaque, disease, eyewitness, diary writer, landmarks.

Finding out about the past

I can use photographs of Birmingham to find out about how some people lived in Victorian times.

I can use pictures, portraits, statues, plaques and images of paintings to find out about the past.

Understanding time

I can place the Cadbury brothers on a timeline

Richard Cadbury (1835 –1899) George Cadbury (1839-1922)

I can place Joseph Chamberlain on a timeline (1836-1914)

Why significant people are important in the past and present

I know why George Cadbury wanted to improve the lives of people who worked in his company.

I know why the Cadbury Brothers are important and why they are remembered today.

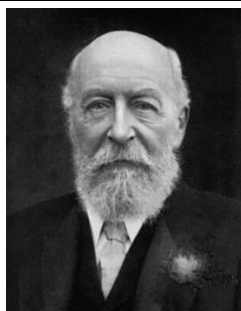

I know why Joseph Chamberlain wanted to improve the lives of people in Birmingham.

I know why Joseph Chamberlain was important and why he is still remembered today.

I can explain how significant people such as the Cadbury brothers and Joseph Chamberlain have improved the lives of others.
